

WHEN WARRANTY PROTECTION FAILS TO DELIVER, CUSTOMER LOYALTY ALSO BREAKS DOWN

No wonder things got a little overheated. Her warranty provider took her money but then went cold on her claim. But although her boiler doesn't look too clever, it's her customer loyalty that's taken the biggest bashing.

At D&G we know that protecting the customer properly also protects the brand. That's why big household names in manufacturing and retailing trust us to deliver. Had she been offered a D&G administered breakdown plan she'd still be a loyal customer, and relaxing in a nice hot bath.
